Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow

Once, there was a wise farmer who lived in a small village. He had a beautiful horse that he used to help him with his work on the farm. One day, the horse ran away. The villagers gathered around the farmer and said, "Oh, how unlucky you are! Your horse has run away, and now you will have to work so much harder."

The farmer looked at them and said, "Maybe it's bad, maybe it's good. We'll see."

A few days later, the horse returned, bringing with it a wild horse. The villagers were amazed and said, "What good luck! Now you have two horses!"

The farmer replied, "Maybe it's good, maybe it's bad. We'll see."

The next day, the farmer's son tried to ride the wild horse. But the horse threw him off, and the son broke his leg. The villagers again gathered and said, "Oh, how unlucky you are! Your son has broken his leg!"

The farmer simply said, "Maybe it's bad, maybe it's good. We'll see."

A few weeks later, a war broke out, and all the young men in the village were sent to fight. Because the farmer's son had a broken leg, he was not sent. The villagers again said, "What good luck! Your son is safe!"

The farmer smiled and said, "Maybe it's good, maybe it's bad. We'll see."

What happened to the farmer's horse? The farmer's horse ran away.

2. How did the villagers react when the horse returned with a wild horse? The villagers were amazed when the horse returned with a wild horse.

3. Why was the farmer's son not sent to war?

a) His son had a broken leg. b) The son had a fever . C) The son denied.

5. Write antonym of scatter.

a) threw b) broke out. C) gathered

6. Pick out the two common noun from the passage farmer, son
