III. Section- C Short Answer Based Questions

6. Mirabai, a Rajput princess, left her palace life to sing songs of love for Lord Krishna. Why did Mirabai's devotion create conflict in her royal family, and what does her story teach us about individual freedom in religion?

7. Describe the atmosphere. Why is it considered essential for living beings?

IV. Section-D Long Answer Based Question

8. Discuss the relationship that exists between media and major business houses.

V. Section-E Source Based Question

9. Read the given source and answer the following questions.

Every Wednesday, a weekly market sets up near Lake Road. People buy vegetables, clothes, and household items at cheap prices because vendors do not have permanent shops. Customers usually bargain to get better rates. For daily needs like milk, bread, and medicines, people visit neighbourhood shops, which provide quick service and sometimes home delivery. Nearby, a shopping complex offers branded products at fixed and higher prices. Although costly, people go there for quality and variety. Thus, people choose different markets depending on price, convenience, and type of goods they need.

A. Why do people prefer to buy goods from the weekly market?

B. State two reasons why neighbourhood shops are convenient for customers.

C. How do vendors manage to sell goods at low prices?

VI. Section-F Map Skill Based Question
