ENGLISH ASSIGNMENT

Reading Section

1. Read the comprehension and answer the questions that follows.

Tara was a young girl who loved to draw and paint. She lived in a small village with her grandmother. One rainy evening, while cleaning the attic, Tara found an old paintbrush inside a wooden box. It looked shiny and special. That night, she decided to try it. She painted a small orange cat on paper and to her surprise, the cat jumped off the page and meowed! Tara was shocked but excited. She had discovered a magic paintbrush! From that day, Tara used the paintbrush to help the villagers. She painted fruits for the hungry, umbrellas for the children, and even fixed broken carts with painted wheels that became real. But one day, a greedy man from the next village found out about the brush and tried to steal it. Tara quickly painted a tall wall between the villages, and the man couldn't cross it. Tara learned to use the brush wisely and only for good. The villagers loved her even more, and she continued to spread happiness through her magical art.
