

Section A: Reading

I Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Tick the correct option.

1. Why was the rabbit running all morning?

b. To save himself from the dog.

2. Who woke the crocodile?

c. A rabbit

3. What startled the flamingo?

a. Crocodile's voice

4. The man sent a dog_____ .

b. To catch the rabbit

Answer the following questions.

5. "Trouble cannot touch me." Who said these words to whom?

Ans. The crocodile said these words to the rabbit.

6. True or False-

a. The crocodile was smoking a pipe. -True

b. Flamingo started the monkey. - False

7. How did the back of the crocodile become rough and bumpy?

Ans. The back of the crocodile became rough and bumpy when the grass caught fire, and the flames licked his back. He ran into the lake, but it was too late.

8. Find the antonym of the word 'rough' from the passage. (Para 1)

Ans. The antonym of the word 'rough' from the passage is 'smooth'

9. Make a sentence of the word 'Trouble' in your own words.

Answer may vary.

10. Pick out four verbs from the passage

Answer may vary

19.	Replace the underlined word with the correct one: Our nervous system controls all the functions of our body.
20.	Deficiency of iodine leads to _____ c) Goitre
Section D : Literature
Extract 1
a.	Name the poem and the poet. The name of the poem is "The Recycling Rap" by John Foster.
b.	What is the main message of the text? The main message of the text is to encourage people to start recycling and to take immediate action to protect the environment.
c.	What phrases are used to emphasize the need for action? The phrases used to emphasize the need for action are: "You've got to start recycling." "Stop sitting on the fence." "No more pussyfooting." "No more claptrap." "Get yourself doing the recycling rap."
d.	What does the term "recycling rap" suggest in the context of the text? The term "recycling rap" suggests a fun and rhythmic way to promote recycling. It implies that recycling can be engaging and appealing, especially to a younger audience, by using the catchy and energetic style of a rap to convey the importance of environmental responsibility.
Extract 2
a.	Who said these lines to whom? c. 'Information Please' to Wayne
b.	What happened to the listener's finger? a. got hurt while playing with tool box
c.	Pick out synonym of 'cure' from the extract. c. heal
Answer the following questions.
a.	Information Please helped Wayne when his finger got hurt. She soothed him when he was in pain and also helped him in Maths and Geography
b.	The man spoke these words to his wife, who said, 'What cheek!' to Binya when Binya asked for her blue umbrella in exchange for the pendant. The man meant that his wife should give away the umbrella if she really wanted the pendant.
c.	Gandhiji got the first lesson of Satyagraha when Kasturba stood up to him silently, refusing to fight.
IX	Write meaning and frame sentences of the following words.
	a. admire - to praise b. pace - speed c. anxious - worried Sentences may vary
X	Match the following words with their meanings:
	1. deforestation a) outline (2) 2. profile b) design of building (3)

	3. architecture	c) to watch carefully (6)
	4. reap	d) easily breakable/ brittle (5)
	5. fragile	e) cutting of trees (1)
	6. observation	f) cut or gather a crop (4)