

1. What are fundamental rights, and how do they differ from ordinary legal rights?

- Competency: Understanding the concept of fundamental rights and distinguishing them from other legal rights.

2. Identify and describe the three social evils where exploitation is prohibited under the right against exploitation.

- Competency: Recognizing and explaining the social dimensions of the right against exploitation.

3. List and explain the specific freedoms included in the right to freedom as outlined in the constitution.

- Competency: Identifying and understanding the various freedoms under the right to freedom.

4. How do cultural and educational rights help minorities maintain their culture and language? Provide justification for your answer.

- Competency: Analyzing how cultural and educational rights support minority groups.

5. Which fundamental right is known as the heart and soul of the Indian Constitution, and why is it given this significance?

- Competency: Identifying the most significant fundamental right and understanding its importance.

6. Describe the writs mentioned under the right to constitutional remedies and explain how they help protect the fundamental rights of Indian citizens.

- Competency: Understanding the mechanisms for protecting fundamental rights through constitutional remedies.

7. Explain the relationship between fundamental rights and directive principles in the context of the Indian Constitution.

- Competency: Analyzing the interplay between fundamental rights and directive principles.

8. What is a constituency? How many parliamentary constituencies are there in Punjab?

- Competency: Understanding the concept of constituencies and their specific numbers within a state.

9.*Who are the candidates contesting the parliamentary elections from the Ludhiana constituency?

- Competency: Identifying election candidates in a specific constituency.

10. What methods do political parties use for election campaigning, and which method is the most popular and why?

- Competency: Understanding the various methods of election campaigning and evaluating their popularity and effectiveness.

11. How does an assembly constituency differ from a parliamentary constituency?

- Competency: Distinguishing between assembly and parliamentary constituencies.

12. Are there any challenges to ensuring free and fair elections? If so, explain what they are.

- Competency: Identifying and explaining the challenges to free and fair elections.