I.	Read the following passage carefully.  KICHA, THE WONDER CHEF <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Ten-year-old Nihal Raj, the little chef from Kerala has been cooking since he was four. He has his own YouTube channel and has featured in several international shows.</li> <li>2. Popularly known as "Little Chef Kicha", Nihal Raj hails from Kochi, Kerala. Born to Rajagopal Krishnan and Ruby Rajagopal, Kicha started cooking when he was very young. He would help his mother, a homemaker, in the kitchen and would ask her many questions.</li> <li>3. One day, he decided to make popsicles and asked his dad to film him. His dad was impressed with Kicha's skills and instructions, and decided to upload the video on Facebook. As soon as he posted the video, he started receiving words of appreciation. Thus, he decided to start a YouTube channel in January 2015 called Kicha Tube HD and uploaded the video there.</li> <li>4. The videos are uploaded as and when Kicha feels like shooting. The recipes for the channel are provided by his mother, who would keep them simple and child-friendly. She ensures the recipes do not involve fire in any way and that if chopping or working with fire is called for, Kicha informs that it is done by an adult for him. Today, Kicha's channel has almost 40k subscribers and more than 100 recipes for delicious items such as oatmeal cookies, coconut payasam, rainbow idli, ice cream and cakes.</li> <li>5. As Kicha's channel started becoming popular, his father received a mail from a U.S.-based casting company asking for rights to Kicha's Mickey Mouse Mango Ice-cream. This was a USD 2,000 deal with Facebook, which acquired non-exclusive rights to the video. As soon as Facebook put up the video, Kicha and his channel gained instant recognition.</li> <li>6. IN September 2016, he received an invite to feature in The Ellen DeGeneres Show hosted by Ellen DeGeneres, an American comedian, television host and producer. Kicha made 'puttu', a popular breakfast in Kerala, for Ellen. In January 2020, Kicha won the Global Child Prodigy Award and was among the top 100 prodigies of the year.</li> </ol>
