

Multiple Choice Questions

1. (A) Dr. Vishnu Wakankar
2. (D) Resemblance
3. (B) Mineral Colour Stone
4. (A) Metal sculptures mainly bronze
5. © Pablo Picasso
6. © Joyful tribal dance
7. (D) It cannot be obtained by mixing any color
8. (B) High Priest

Short Answer Questions

1. Bodhisattva Padmapani is a Buddhist sculpture depicting the Bodhisattva of Compassion, Avalokiteshvara, holding a lotus flower.
2. Colors are a form of electromagnetic radiation with different wavelengths. Colors can evoke emotions and convey meaning. Effects of colors can vary depending on cultural context and personal experiences.
3. The Bull Seal is a famous seal from the Indus Valley Civilization, depicting a bull with a horned headgear.
4. Ajanta paintings are Buddhist cave paintings from the 2nd century BCE to the 5th century CE, located in Ajanta, Maharashtra. The paintings depict Buddhist mythology and everyday life.

5. The Indus Valley Civilization was a Bronze Age civilization that flourished in the Indus Valley region (present-day Pakistan and northwestern India) between 3300 and 1300 BCE.

6. Mara Vijay is a Buddhist sculpture depicting the victory of the Buddha over the demon Mara.

7. Ajanta paintings are a series of Buddhist cave paintings that showcase the art, culture, and mythology of ancient India.