Q5: Read the source given below and answer the questions that follow:

It is said of "passive resistance" that it is the weapon of the weak, but the power which is the subject of this article can be used only by the strong.

This power is not passive resistance; indeed, it calls for intense activity.

The movement in South Africa was not passive but active ... 'Satyagraha is not a physical force. A satyagrahi does not inflict pain on the adversary; he does not seek his destruction ... In the use of satyagraha, there is no ill will whatever. 'Satyagraha is pure soul force. Truth is the very substance of the soul. That is why this force is called satyagraha. The soul is informed with knowledge. In it burns the flame of love. ... Nonviolence is the supreme dharma ...' It is certain that India cannot rival Britain or Europe in terms of arms. The British worship the war god and they can all of them become, as they are becoming, bearers of arms. The hundreds of millions in India can never carry arms. They have made the religion of non-violence their own ... In his famous book Hind Swaraj (1909) Mahatma Gandhi declared that British rule was established in India, with the cooperation of Indians, and had survived only because of this cooperation. If Indians refused to cooperate, British rule will collapse within a year.

(i) Why did Gandhiji say that passive resistance is not the weapon of the weak?

(ii) "Satyagraha is pure soul-force." Substantiate this statement in 20 words.

(iii) What according to Mahatma Gandhi is the best weapon to use to collapse British rule in India?

Q6: A worker in an urban area, who was working in a small factory, was not paid his wages properly, he was forced to work extra hours under poor working conditions, there was no job security, and recently he lost his job and was found selling electrical items in a pushcart.

Analyze the role of the government in protecting the workers working in an unorganized sector.

Q7: Analyze the circumstances which led Gandhiji to choose abolition of salt tax as the most important demand of the Civil Disobedience Movement.
