Unseen Passage

Anisha got up at 8 o'clock. She rushed to brush her teeth and have a bath. While she was scrubbing her face, mother called her and said, "Hurry up! Your favourite dish is ready and new clothes are waiting for you." Anisha dressed up and came to the drawing room. She saw a bowl on the table. "What is this, mother?" asked Anisha. "This is kheer for you," replied mother. Anisha exclaimed, "Wow!" Anisha loved the delicious dish. That evening, when Anisha's friends came to wish her on Diwali, they told her how fire-crackers are made by children. Many children fall sick because of chemicals used in the making of crackers. Anisha and her friends took a pledge not to burn crackers, and to have a peaceful Diwali without pollution.

Read the passage carefully and answer the following questions.

1. Who prepared Anisha's favourite dish?
