

Class VII Paper Pattern Assignment

Subject - English

Answer Key

Reading Section

1. Where do rivers typically begin?

Ans. ii) In the mountains

2. What is one negative effect of rivers mentioned in the passage?

Ans. iv) They cause floods

3. Ans1. Rivers carve valleys and canyons, shape landscapes and form fertile plains. These plains are often suitable for agriculture and settlement.

Ans2. The Nile River was the lifeblood of Ancient Egypt. It provided water, food and fertile soil for farming in the desert region.

Ans3. It is important to protect rivers because they support ecosystems, provide drinking water, generate electricity and maintain environmental balance.

4. Winning the first prize in the competition was a significant achievement for Riya.
(Answer will vary)

5. Dangerous

6. Rivers: Lifelines of Nature (Answer will vary)

Grammar Section

VI. Do as directed

a) knowledge

b) The letter was written by me with a Camlin pen.

c) The Burj Khalifa is the tallest building in the world.

d) My mother had boarded the train.

e) It is an ideal opportunity for the budding singers of our school to learn singing.

f) She was suffering from stomach ache.

- g) She is feeling much better now.
- h) Correct passive form: ii) The wall was painted by the painter.
- i) They do not drink plenty of water.
- j) Did they play cricket in the ground?
- k) Amit's father was not listened to by him.
- l) Past – blew; Past participle – blown
- m) I was strolling in the evening when I saw a cyclist who got injured in an accident.
- n) Coffee is popular in many parts of the world.
- o) A beautiful pen was given to me by her.

Literature Section

VII.Extract I

Q1. Name the poem and its poet.

Ans. The poem is The Rebel by D. J. Enright.

Q2. Why did the adults give so many instructions to the children?

Ans. Adults gave many instructions to discipline the children and teach them good manners.

Q3. Find out the word similar in meaning to 'interfere'.

Ans. Interrupt

Extract 2

Ans. C) elephant

Ans. C) Python

Ans. A) for breakfast

VIII. Answer the following questions.

a)How did the king and the hermit help the wounded man?

Ans. The king and the hermit washed the man's wound, bandaged it, and gave him water to drink. They carried him into the hut and nursed him till he recovered.

b)What did Golu do to cool his nose?

Ans. Golu put his long nose into a large mud hole and then dipped it in the Limpopo river to keep it cool.

c) Why did the Daimio reward the farmer but punish the neighbour for the same art?

Ans. The farmer scattered ashes that created a beautiful effect of blossoming cherry trees, which pleased the Daimio. The neighbour tried the same trick, but his ashes caused trouble and spoiled things, so he was punished.

IX. Compare the characters of Gopal and the King in your own words.

Ans. Gopal was witty, intelligent, and quick-thinking. He used his cleverness to prove his point and make the king laugh. The King, on the other hand, was proud and authoritative but also fair-minded, as he appreciated Gopal's wisdom and rewarded him.

X. 1. Gracious

2. Clot

3. Drowsy

XI.a) I like all (except) the black one.

b) Sherlock Holmes often plays the violin.