

Class - VII

Answer Key

1.Extract

- 1.Maha Vir Chakra is the India's second highest gallantry award.
2. Captain Anuj Nayyar, MVC, an Indian Army officer of the 17 Jat regiment was posthumously awarded the Maha Vir Chakra , for exemplary valour during the Kargil War in 1999.
3. His mother Meena Nayyar has written a memoir titled Tiger of Drass– Capt. Anuj Nayyar – 23 – Kargil Hero.

Ans2

- a) It was raining heavily and the streets were flooded with the downpour. The traffic was blocked and the children got a holiday because of all this.
- b) Nishad turned sympathetic towards Mr Nath seeing his gaunt appearance. His attitude changed further when he came to know that he used to give regular tips to Ramesh for bringing his food. Then he also remembered his mother's words that Mr Nath was a polite man.
- c) According to Plan A, father would have reached the tree top with the help of the ladder. However, the ladder slipped and father fell on the ground.
- d) The bear ate the same food as the dogs. He was given bread, porridge, potatoes, cabbages and turnips. He was a vegetarian. He liked the apple most. He was not allowed to pluck apples from the tree and attack the beehive.

Ans3. Descriptive

We must pay homage to our brave soldiers because they protect us and our country. They risk their lives to keep us safe and ensure we can live in peace. Showing gratitude is a way of saying "thank you" for their courage and sacrifices. It helps us appreciate their hard work and encourages them to keep protecting us.