II. Short Questions –

Answers –

a) Nelson Mandela set the ideals of liberating people from the bondage of poverty, and deprivation. He also set the ideals for a society where there would be no discrimination supported based on gender or racial origins.

b) Mrs Pumphrey was very loving and caring mistress for Tricki. Her love and care did more harm than good to Tricki. She pampered him by giving him a luxurious life. She overfed him. The result was that Tricki became fat and lethargic. Over pampering and overfeeding were leading into disaster by spoiling his health. Cutting down his meals was much required to improve his health. Therefore, Mr Herriot suggested Mrs Pumphrey so.

III. Descriptive Question

Answer -

Existence of Humanity

After reading 'A letter to God', our faith in humanity stirs for strong. We learn from the story that there still are people who help others without any self-interest. The postmaster and the post office employees lay an example for everyone of us to be kind. Though they all laughed at his letter, they were really moved by the grip of faith Lencho had in God. The way they all decided to help the stranger in his hard times restores our faith in the existence of humanity and motivates us to be a noble and kind person.
