PAPER PATTERN ASSIGNMENT

CLASS-VI

SUBJECT- ENGLISH (184)

SECTION A : READING

I. Read the following passage and answer the questions given:

1. Rahul and Dev were best friends who lived in the same apartment building. Every evening, they played together in the park—sometimes cricket, sometimes hide-and-seek. One Friday afternoon, Dev told Rahul he wouldn't be able to play because he had promised his mother to help her clean the house. Rahul felt disappointed but understood.
2. Later that evening, Rahul noticed that Dev's younger sister, Anya, was struggling to carry a heavy bag of books up the stairs. Dev was busy sweeping the balcony and didn't notice her. Rahul immediately ran over and offered to help. Together, he and Anya carried the bag safely inside.
3. When Dev finished his chores and came outside, he learned how Rahul had helped Anya. He felt grateful and thanked Rahul for being such a thoughtful friend. Rahul smiled and said that friends should always help each other, especially when someone needs support.
4. The next day, Dev completed his chores early and showed up at the park with two cricket bats. "Let's practice today! I saved us extra time," he said happily. Rahul laughed, and the two friends enjoyed a long evening of cricket together. Both boys realized that friendship grows stronger through kindness and responsibility.

A. Choose the correct option:

1. Why couldn't Dev play with Rahul on Friday?
 - a) He was feeling sick
 - b) He had homework
 - c) He had to help his mother
 - d) He went to visit a friend
2. Who did Rahul help in Dev's absence?
 - a) Dev's mother
 - b) A neighbour
 - c) A shopkeeper
 - d) Dev's sister Anya

B. Answer the following questions

1. What do Rahul's actions show about his nature?
2. Why do you think Dev was grateful to Rahul?
3. How did Dev make up for missing playtime the next day?
4. Do you think helping others strengthens friendship? Why or why not?
5. Write about a time when you helped a friend or classmate. How did it make you feel?
6. Give the antonym of 'late' from the passage 4.
