

BCM SCHOOL, BASANT AVENUE, DUGRI, LUDHIANA

ASSIGNMENT – DECEMBER 10, 2025

CLASS – XI

SUBJECT – POLITICAL SCIENCE

Section – A: MCQs (1 × 4 = 4 Marks)

1. Which feature of the Rajya Sabha ensures continuity in the Indian parliamentary system?
 - a. Its power to pass Money Bills
 - b. Retirement of one-third of members every two years
 - c. Direct election by citizens
 - d. Its control over the Council of Ministers

2. In which situation can the Supreme Court exercise its advisory jurisdiction?
 - a. When a dispute arises between two neighbours
 - b. When the President seeks clarification on a matter of law or fact
 - c. When a state government challenges a teacher appointment
 - d. When a village panchayat asks for legal advice

3. Which of the following best reflects Tagore's idea of nationalism?
 - a. Isolation from all global influences
 - b. Aggressive promotion of cultural superiority
 - c. Harmonising love for one's nation with universal human values
 - d. Making citizens follow a uniform culture

4. Who among the following belongs to the permanent executive?
 - a. Prime Minister
 - b. Chief Minister
 - c. Cabinet Secretary
 - d. Speaker of Lok Sabha

Section – B: Short Answer Questions (2 × 4 = 8 Marks)

5. Why is bicameralism considered essential in a federal parliamentary democracy like India? Give any two reasons.

6. "Rights and duties are interdependent." Explain with two suitable arguments.

7. Distinguish between Original Jurisdiction and Appellate Jurisdiction of the Supreme Court.

8. Explain how political executives and permanent executives complement each other in governance.

Section – C: Long Answer Questions (4 × 2 = 8 Marks)

9. Evaluate any four methods through which Parliament keeps a check on the Executive.

10. Discuss any four different ways in which a person can acquire citizenship of a country. Explain why citizenship is essential for ensuring one's legal and political identity.