

Ans1. B

Ans2. A

Ans3. (1) enrich the soil with nutrients.

(ii) Manures add organic matter to the soil.

Manure increases the water holding capacity in sandy soil.

In clayey soil, avoids water logging.

Ans4. Protein and other nutrients

Ans5. The purpose of breeding of broilers are for Meat and layers are for egg laying poultry.

The daily food requirement or ration of Broilers are rich in protein with adequate fat. They are fed with supplementary feed rich in Vitamin A and K for good growth rate. The egg laying birds utilise more fibrous cheaper diets formulated using agricultural byproducts.

Ans 6. Chewing. Sucking. Boring:

Control measure: Spraying insecticide.

Preventive measure: Use of resistant variety of Seeds.