English

I.	Read the passage carefully and answer the questions:
	One rainy afternoon, Sarah was walking home from school. As she passed a park, she saw a small dog stuck in a muddy puddle. The poor dog was trying to get out but kept slipping back in.
	Sarah quickly ran over and helped the dog out of the puddle. The dog wagged its tail and looked up at Sarah with big, thankful eyes. She smiled and said, "You're safe now!"
	The dog followed Sarah home, and Sarah's parents let her keep the dog as a pet. Sarah named the dog Max, and they became best friends.
	Questions:
	1. What was Sarah doing on the rainy afternoon ?

II.	Read the passage carefully and answer the questions:
	A rainforest is a special kind of forest that gets a lot of rain throughout the year. Rainforests are found in warm places near the equator, like the Amazon Rainforest in South America. They are filled with tall trees, colourful plants, and thousands of animals. Some of the animals that live in rainforests include jaguars, sloths, parrots, and frogs.
	Rainforests are important because they produce a large amount of the world's oxygen, which we need to breathe. They also help control the Earth's climate and provide homes for many living creatures. Sadly, many rainforests are being cut down, which can harm animals and the environment. Protecting rainforests helps keep our planet healthy.
