

BCM SCHOOL, BASANT AVENUE, DUGRI ROAD, LUDHIANA

ANSWER KEY ENGLISH ASSIGNMENT

CLASS - XI

I.

1. d
2. to return to his father's home.
3. Alliteration
4. Forgive his son

II. 1. The author was ill when he reached Darchen. His sinus was were blocked because of the cold weather and altitude change. He didn't sleep well and the next day, he went to the Tibetan doctor who gave him some medicine.

2. The doctor at the Darchen Medical College did not wear the traditional white coat of a doctor. He observed the author and diagnosed his problem as the effect of cold and high altitude. He gave him brown powders and pellets to be taken with hot water. The author benefitted with this treatment.

3. The father is unhappy about this stranger-like relationship. He, of course, wishes to change it as he is ready to accept his prodigal son. He will love to start living with him in the same house.

III. The narrator, Nick Middleton, had to travel across the challenging terrain to get to Mount Kailash. The path was completely covered in snow, and because it was so steep, they couldn't go around it. They overcame it in some way. The risk was that they would slip. They threw dirt in all directions, totally covering the snow.

Tsetan drove the car across the snow and the narrator and Daniel stepped out to reduce the burden. He had a headache as a result of the low air pressure. Due to the low pressure, the fuel in automobiles also expanded, which was dangerous for them. The narrator also experienced severe cold symptoms and respiratory difficulties in Darchen as a result of blocked sinuses. Hor was a run-down, filthy, and incredibly dreary town. Overall, the author's journey was exciting.